Alan Mikhail's God Shadow, a globally minded history of Selim I's reign as the Ottoman Emperor, is an excellent addition to the body of literature that Hay helped set in motion more than sixty years ago. The grandson of Mehmed II, the conqueror of Constantinople, Selim I ("the Grim") reigned as Sultan from 1512 to 1520 after pushing his way to the front of the line of inheritance from among his father Bayezid II's nineteen children.
