The God Eaters Jesse Hajicek

The God Eaters is an adventure story with a strong "love never gives up." What I really enjoyed in this story was how centered and grounded I was through the whole thing. Hajicek knew his world and never fumbled with the details. An example I can share is Ashleigh's glasses. When he had them, he had them and occasionally they would get dirty

Hajicek penned a wonderfully western fantasy that -- even though published in 2006 -- mirrors many soceital issues that exist in the current day and age. Hajicek seems to have disappeared from the novel-writing arena, and that's disappointing. If any novel deserved a sequel, The God Eaters does, and I'd be one of the first to purchase it.
